Description
Provide a short description of the event and its activities.
The in-situ meeting in Zagreb started according to plan - with a welcome at the hotel, introduction and presentation of programme, external participants and their organizations, and going to a joint dinner with exchange of experiences and getting to know each other.

The first day - after the registration of all participants, Grodan Bosanac gave a welcome on behalf of the City of Zagreb and the City Assembly.

Claudia Dombrovski & Alina Lyapina presented the objectives of the C4R project, and Jane Grote & Tiago da Cruz presented the IASH network.

Partner cities: Zagreb, Barcelona, Berlin, Munich and Villeurbanne presented their own experiences and the situation in their cities concerning migration/integration.

A field visit to art studio Živi atelje Dajht Kralj was also organized - an example of good practice of social integration and migrant's inclusion through artistic work.

The second day - a hybrid participation of colleagues from France and Albania was organized.

Alina Lyapina, presented of EU migration/asylum legislation, and Grodan Bosanac was talking about exchange of information and best-practice on migration/asylum across Europe, e.g. in formal of a mailing list.

An open debate about the content of the "Joint Statement" was held (Comments on Palermo Declaration; Working Group - to address the content of the "Joint Statement").

Also, future cooperation between IASH and the project C4R and planed future activities of the C4R project were also discussed.

The end of the in-site meeting in Zagreb was on the second day at 2:00 p.m.
