| Provide a short description of the event and its activities. | | | |
| The first day: The in-situ meeting in Zagreb started according to plan - with a welcome at the hotel, introduction and presentation of programme, external participants and their organizations, and going to a joint dinner with exchange of experiences and getting to know each other. | | | |

The second day - after the registration of all participants, Grodan Bosanac gave a welcome on behalf of the City of Zagreb and the City Assembly.

BBAG e.V. and BGP presented the objectives of the C4R project, and City of Berlin & City of Bracelona presented the IASH network.

Partner cities: Zagreb, Barcelona, Berlin, Munich and Villeurbanne presented their own experiences and the situation in their cities concerning migration/integration.

After the registration of all participants - on the first day, G. Bosanac gave a welcome on behalf of the City of Zagreb and the City Assembly.

A field visit to art studio Živi atelje Dajht Kralj was also organized - an example of good practice of social integration and migrant's inclusion through artistic work.

The third day - a hybrid participation of colleagues from France and Albania was organized.

BGP presented of EU migration/asylum legislation, and G. Bosanac was talking about exchange of information and best-practice on migration/asylum across Europe, e.g. in formal of a mailing list.

An open debate about the content of the "Joint Statement" was held (Comments on Palermo Declaration; Working Group - to address the content of the "Joint Statement").

Also, future cooperation between IASH and the project C4R and planed future activities of the C4R project were also discussed.

Objectives were:

- Presentation of the so-far outcomes/outputs and status quo
- Strengthen the cooperation between municipalities and its local civil society groups
- Promoting the exchange of best practices around the topic of migrant and refugee inclusion in European cities
- actively including local civil society groups the projects wants to ensure an active citizen participation at the local level
- reinforce the role of local and regional authorities in the European integration process.
- widen the network IASH, linking new members of the network.

The seminar was realised by the team of Steering group in close cooperation with the City of Zagreb and with the support of all project partners. There was a clear overview of tasks and responsibilities.

Concrete activities were:

-expanding the network IASH; exchange with the involved partners (Mayors, local and regional institutions, NGOs etc.),

-organisation of workshops and seminars, matching new network partners; presentation of the outputs, lobby work, PR,

-preparation for the next online meeting.

-Evaluation, dissemination and communication of the meeting:

After the meeting, the results of the evaluation were checked and analysed for the last physical meeting in Potsdam.

Relevant information and knowledge are shared with all project partners. The work for the implementation of the project's communication plan through its communication channels. All related materials were uploaded. On social media channels, a dissemination of the progress and the results, an invitation for the next event were communicated.
